11.13 Collecting, streaming, distributing or accessing any material that you know, or reasonably should know, cannot be legally collected, streamed, distributed or accessed.

Security

11.14 You are responsible for ensuring that your usernames, passwords and login details for any broadband service or equipment remain confidential so that the network cannot be used by any unauthorised person including, but not limited to, those controlling access to (a) any computer hardware systems or networks; (b) any computer software or applications; or (c) any other services accessed by you in the use of either of the above. You shall not disclose these credentials to any third party, or use the same for any purpose connected with the improper use of the network including accessing or attempting to access other parts of the services for which you do not have access rights. You are responsible for taking all reasonable steps necessary to prevent a third party obtaining access to the network. You must immediately advise us if you become aware of any violation or suspected violation of these security provisions.

Other users

11.15 You are responsible for all uses made of the Broadband Service through your account (whether authorised or unauthorised) and for any breach of this policy whether an unacceptable use occurs or is attempted, whether you knew or should have known about it, whether or not you carried out or attempted the unacceptable use alone, contributed to or acted with others or allowed any unacceptable use to occur by omission. You agree that the landlord is not responsible for any of your activities in using the network. Although the internet is designed to appeal to a broad audience, it's your responsibility to determine whether any of the content accessed via the Broadband Service is appropriate for children or others in your household to view or use.

If any of the above conditions are or become in violation of the Tenant's rights or deemed unfair due to changes in the law or for any other reason then those and only those conditions affected will become void while the rest of the contract will maintain its validity.
